What's God got planned for you?

Well has God spoken to you? Have you seen the burning bush, or has he made you blind, placed mud on your eyes and told you what to do? If you are like me you have never heard the voice of God and never seen that burning bush to hear what God wants you do to. There are however many other ways that God may choose to speak to you.

In the past I have often gotten those Goosebumps while singing an old hymn or hearing someone speak. I would sit there and tear up and wonder what was going on with me. It was not until I was much older and started acting on these feeling did I realize that it was God's way of talking to me. I now have named these as the warm and fuzzy feelings.

These feelings can happen in the most unusual places. I can be driving along into work and suddenly get this idea of something I am suppose to do, such as a bible story for my bible class of 3 year olds, or a project for the kids in kids' worship. Some of these warm and fuzzy feelings have panned out and some have not. Most have created a whole lot of extra work for me. Now these warm and fuzzy feelings have taken me to taking short-term missions, resurrecting my hobby of photography, creating videos and many other things that I never imagined I could do.

Have you had those warm and fuzzy feelings? Have you had them and did not recognize what they were? This is very possible, even if you are a mature Christian or a Christian in its infancy. The next time that different idea comes into your mind and you find yourself thinking about it, act on it, the Holy Spirit is trying to tell you something!!

John 16:12-14

"I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you."

Are you listening? What do you feel God is leading you to?
